Library will be closed on July 5 to have the carpet & tile floors cleaned.

Discussion was held regarding replenishing the vacation, sick and accrued account. M. Broderick made a motion to expend $2500 for the vacation, sick & accrue account. Seconded by B. Davis. Approved by all.

Apple Trees-T. Hooker contacted Brian at Fox Croft Fruits regarding the planting of apples trees at the recommendation of Mike Sorel. Fox Croft Fruits is not able to provide a certificate of insurance. T. Hooker informed the board and at this time she cannot recommend that we use Fox Croft Fruits since they are not properly insured. It is a requirement that all contractors that conduct business at the library be able to provide a certificate of insurance. The board discussed they like the idea of planting apple trees and will continue to research other vendors.

Adult & Information Services Librarian-Per the recommendation of the Town of Hooksett’s Administrative Services Coordinator, Donna Fitzpatrick the Adult & Information Services Librarian would be FLSA exempt. The Administrative Services Coordinator actually stated “She would be concerned if we did not make this position FLSA exempt. The board agreed to follow the recommendation of the Administrative Services Coordinator.

Technical Services Librarian position-after the trustees reviewed the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) and the job description of the Technical Services Librarian it was determined that this position would be FLSA exempted. This will take effective on May 26, 2019.
